

About Australian Partners of Defence

APOD is Australia's official veteran recognition platform in partnership with the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

APOD members are serving defence personnel, veterans and their immediate family.

Offers can be redeemed in a variety of ways, depending on how your business has made the offer available to our members.

Online Offers

Online offers are redeemed via the APOD website APOD.com.au when the member clicks on the business offer page and follows the instructions to open the business' website and apply the promotional code, if applicable.

In-Store Offers

The APOD member card may be presented in physical or digital form, or as a printable APOD voucher. The APOD card has a unique, scannable barcode which is also displayed on the member's mobile device against their digital Veteran Card.

Other Types of Offers

Other types of offers may require members to validate their APOD membership over the phone or via email by providing their member number or a code as specified on the business offer page on the APOD website APOD.com.au.
